

WASHINGTON -- U.S. Rep John Olver (D-First District) announced today that the U.S. Depart

The grant -- awarded under the School-Based Partnerships program of the Justice Departmen

"Community policing has proven to be an effective tool in combating crime in our schools and n

"I applaud the Administration and the Department of Justice for continuing to put our children fi

The Pittsfield Police Department is the recipient of the $129,664 grant and will collaborate with

The School-Based Partnership program is a new initiative of the Clinton Administration and is c

###